

Australian Government

Department of Sustainability, Environment, Water, Population and Communities

APPROVAL OF AN ARTIFICIAL PROPAGATION PROGRAM

Tropical Coast Palms has been approved as an artificial propagation program until August 2018 under Regulation 9A.18 of the Environment Protection and Biodiversity Conservation Act 1999 (EPBC Act) for the following:

Approved at species level

Encephalartos natalensis	Encephalartos ferox
Encephalartos princeps	Encephalartos gratus
Encephalartos nubimontanus	Encephalartos hildebrandtii
Encephalartos whitelockii	Encephalartos horridus
Encephalartos trispinosus	Encephalartos inopinus
Ceratozamia hildae	Encephalartos lebomboensis
Ceratozamia kuesteriana	Encephalartos lehmannii
Ceratozamia latifolia	Encephalartos manikensis
Ceratozamia mexicana	Encephalartos middelburgensis
Ceratozamia norstogii	Encephalartos msinganus
Ceratozamia robusta	Encephalartos munchii
Encephalartos arenarius	Encephalartos ngoyanus
Encephalartos bubalinus	Encephalartos turneri
Encephalartos cerinus	Encephalartos villosus
Encephalartos cupidus	Stangeria eriopus
Encephalartos eugene-maraisii

Approved at genus level (excluding CITES I and EPBC listed species):

Cycas
Dioon
Zamia

