Mr Graeme Bolton
Deputy Director-General
Fisheries and Forestry
Department of Agriculture and Fisheries
GPO Box 46
BRISBANE QLD 4001

Dear Mr Bolton

I am writing to you as Delegate of the Minister for the Environment in relation to the assessment of the Queensland Line Fishery (Reef) under the Environment Protection and Biodiversity Conservation Act 1999 (EPBC Act).

On 20 July 2020, the Queensland Department of Agriculture and Fisheries applied for assessment of the Line Fishery (Reef) under export and protected species provisions of the EPBC Act.

On 29 September 2020, the Queensland Government announced a range of reforms to its fisheries legislation and on 6 October entered caretaker-mode, pending outcome of the Queensland state election.

I have decided to grant a short-term extension to the current export approval for the fishery until 30 January 2021. This will allow the recent changes to the legislation to be considered and issues and possible conditions for approval to be negotiated between our two departments. The extension will be effected through an amendment to the List of Exempt Native Specimens.

I have also taken this opportunity to update the accreditation of the management regime for the fishery under Part 13. This now reflects the legislation as amended on 30 September 2019. This decision will be reviewed as part of the assessment of the fishery that is currently underway.

Please note that any person whose interests are affected by this decision may make an application to the Department for the reasons for the decision and may apply to the Administrative Appeals Tribunal to have this decision reviewed. I have enclosed further information on these processes at Attachment 1.

Yours sincerely

Notification of Reviewable Decisions and Rights of Review¹

There is a right of review to the Administrative Appeals Tribunal (AAT) in relation to certain decisions/declarations made by the Minister, the Minister's delegate or the Secretary under Part 13A of the Environment Protection and Biodiversity Conservation Act 1999 (EPBC Act).

Section 303GJ(1) of the EPBC Act provides that applications may be made to the AAT for the review of the following decisions:

- (a) to issue or refuse a permit; or
- (b) to specify, vary or revoke a condition of a permit; or
- (c) to impose a further condition of a permit; or
- (d) to transfer or refuse to transfer a permit; or
- (e) to suspend or cancel a permit; or
- (f) to issue or refuse a certificate under subsection 303CC(5); or
- (g) of the Secretary under a determination in force under section 303EU; or
- (h) to make or refuse a declaration under section 303FN, 303FO or 303FP; or
- (i) to vary or revoke a declaration under section 303FN, 303FO or 303FP.

If you are dissatisfied with a decision of a type listed above you may:

- by notice, provided in writing, request that the Minister or the Minister's delegate give you a statement in writing setting out the reasons for the decision as per section 28 of the Administrative Appeals Tribunal Act 1975. The Minister, or Minister's delegate may refuse to give you a statement of reasons if your application is made more than 28 days after the day on which you received this notice.
- apply to the AAT for independent merits review of the decision. The AAT undertakes de novo merits review. This means they take a fresh look at the facts, law and policy relating to the decision and arrive at their own decision. They decide if the decision should stay the same or be changed. They are independent of the Department.

Application for review of a decision must be made to the AAT within 28 days after the day on which you have received the reviewable decision. However, an extension of time for lodging an application may be granted by the AAT under certain circumstances. Please visit the AAT's website at <http://www.aat.gov.au/> or telephone 1800 228 333 for further information. The role of the AAT is to provide a review mechanism that is fair, just, economical, informal and quick.

Applications & Costs

Applications to the AAT are made by lodging an Application Form (Form 1). This can be found on the AAT's website at <http://www.aat.gov.au/>.

There are no strict timelines in which the AAT must review the decision, however the first conference between the parties will usually be held within 6 to 10 weeks of the application being lodged. The time frame for review of certain decisions can be expedited in some circumstances.

¹ In accordance with the Administrative Appeals Tribunal Act 1975 Code of Practice for Notification of Reviewable Decisions and Rights of Review

The cost of lodging an application for review is $920 (as of 1 July 2018) (GST inclusive). You may be eligible to pay a reduced fee of $100.00 if

- you are receiving legal aid for your application;
- you hold a health care card, a Commonwealth seniors health card or any other card issued by the Department of Social Services or the Department of Veteran's Affairs that entitles the holder to Commonwealth health concessions;
- you are in prison or lawfully detained in a public institution;
- you are under 18 years of age; or
- you are receiving youth allowance, Austudy or ABSTUDY.

You may also be eligible for a reduced fee if you can demonstrate to the AAT that paying the full fee would cause you financial hardship. Further information can be found on the AAT's website. Additionally, you can access information about legal assistance at <https://www.ag.gov.au/LegalSystem/Legalaidprogrammes/Commonwealthlegalfinancialassistance/Documents/LegalFinancialAssistanceInformationSheet.pdf>.

If you pay a standard application fee, most of it will be refunded if the case is resolved in your favour. The refund amount is the difference between the fee you paid and $100. So, if you paid $884, you get back $784 and if you pay $920, you get back $820. There is no refund if you paid the lower application fee for certain taxation decisions or the reduced fee of $100.
